HARD TO BEAT — When it comes to winning a high school dual wrestling meet, the Brandon, FL, wrestling program is hard to beat (1998-99 shown above). The 2007-08 team extended the school's national record to 459 consecutive dual-meet victories and extended the school's unbeaten streak to 468 dual meets, before losing a meet for the first time since 1974.

DUAL PERFECTION — In 1974 Conyers Rockdale County, GA, became the second wrestling team in high school history to score a perfect 72 points in a dual meet (12 weight classes). Four years later, the 1977-78 team (pictured above) turned the trick again to give the Georgia school two of the 31 times a perfect score has been tallied.

INDIANA POWERS — One of the most consistent high school wrestling performers of all time was Lance Ellis (left) of Indianapolis Cathedral, IN. During his career from 1986 to 1989, the Indiana standout won 177 consecutive matches, which ranks eighth all time. During his winning streak, Ellis captured four consecutive Indiana High School Athletic Association individual state championships. He became only the fourth high school wrestler in Indiana history to accomplish the feat. Alex Tsirtsis (left in right photo) of Griffith, IN, and Blake Maurer (right in right photo) of Evansville Mater Dei, IN, became the fifth and sixth four-time state champions in Indiana. Tsirtsis finished his career with victories in all 236 of his matches, which ranks second for consecutive victories.

FOUR-TIME IOWA CHAMP DOUBLES IN RODEO — Jesse Sundell of Ogden, IA (on top), who won four consecutive Iowa High School Athletic Association state wrestling championships from 1998 to 2001, also competes in rodeo. In fact, a rodeo injury (compound fracture of the leg) before his junior season in September 1999 cast some serious doubt on Sundell's wrestling future, but Sundell bounced back from that injury to win two more state titles. Sundell is the 11th Iowa wrestler and just the second Ogden High School wrestler to win four consecutive titles, as Jason Keenan accomplished the feat from 1992 to 1995.

NEW MEXICO BROTHERS WIN NINE STATE TITLES — Brothers Scott (left) and Troy (right) Owen of Carlsbad, NM, collected nine New Mexico Activities Association Class AAAA state wrestling titles between them. Scott became the first New Mexico wrestler to win five state titles between 1994 and 1998, amassing a 121-1 career win-loss record along the way. Troy, a year younger, compiled a 120-7 career record and won four state titles from 1996 to 1999 in the 152-pound weight class as a freshman and a junior and in the 160-pound weight class as a sophomore and a senior. The pair played a role in leading Carlsbad to three consecutive state titles from 1995 to 1997. Interestingly, both were coached by their father, Don Owen, who also wrestled at Carlsbad, where he was runner-up in the 145-pound weight class in the 1971 New Mexico state tournament.
